Awards and Reviews for Grandma Dangerous and the Dog of Destiny

Winner of Spellbinding, the Cumbrian Primary Schools Book Award, 2019

Nominated for the Lancashire Libraries Very Special Book Award, winner announced May 2020

'Grandma Dangerous and the Dog of Destiny by Kita Mitchell is a great book that definitely deserves more than five stars. Probably a billion stars.'

Violet (8) Book Reviews from the Desk of the Two Owls.

'...The book is easy to read without using simplistic vocabulary. I could imagine the type of reluctant readers I work with in my library being enchanted by the vivacious characters and the fast-paced plot.'

Storgy Kids

'...The lovely thing about this book is Ollie. He is the kid you want your kid to be. He is fairly brave in the face of challenges – including the disappearance of his father. He wants to stick to the rules and his Mum's guidelines, and is disapproving of his grandma's perpetual lying and stealing. He has a lovely relationship with his friend, Piper. Don't we all want to read about a (fictitious) peer who is faced with questionable behaviour, but sticks true?'

The Children's Book Council of Australia

'The Grandma that every child wants and every parent probably fears, this hilarious adventure promises to be a huge hit.'

Madge Eekal Reviews

'...The plot of this book is utterly far-fetched and yet strangely believable, and the hilarious characters are a delight.'
